

The first digit of each room number indicates the floor; the second digit identifies the corridor. The direction of the arrow indicates the progression of room numbers from low to high. (Not all floors of SPH II contain a x3xx or x4xx corridor.) Room numbers in SPH II all have an "M" prefix.

The first and second floors of the connector are referred to as the Crossroads; floors three and above comprise the Tower.